Item 3. Disciplinary Information

SLC is required to disclose information regarding any legal or disciplinary events material to a client's evaluation of John D. Bordelon. SLC has no information to disclose in relation to this Item.

Item 4. Other Business Activities

SLC is required to disclose information regarding any investment-related business or occupation in which John D. Bordelon is actively engaged. SLC has no information to disclose in relation to this Item.

Registered Representative of a Broker-Dealer

John D. Bordelon is a registered representative of LPL Financial (“LPL”), an SEC registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA. In this capacity, John D. Bordelon may provide securities brokerage services and implement securities transactions under a commission based arrangement. John D. Bordelon may be entitled to a portion of the brokerage commissions paid to LPL, as well as a share of any ongoing distribution or service (“trail”) fees from the sale of mutual funds.

A conflict of interest exists to the extent that John D. Bordelon recommends the purchase of securities where he receives commissions or other additional compensation as a result. This practice may give him an incentive to recommend investment products based on compensation received rather than on the client's needs. SLC has procedures in place to ensure that all recommendations are made in the best interests of clients regardless of any additional compensation earned. For certain accounts covered by ERISA (and such others that the firm deems appropriate), SLC provides investment advisory services on a fee offset basis, whereby the firm reduces its fee by an amount equal to the aggregate commissions and 12b-1 fees earned by John D. Bordelon in his individual capacity as a registered representative of LPL.

Licensed Insurance Agent

John D. Bordelon is a licensed insurance agent and in such capacity may recommend, on a fully-disclosed commission basis, the purchase of certain insurance products. A conflict of interest exists to the extent that SLC recommends the purchase of insurance products where John D. Bordelon receives insurance commissions or other additional compensation. SLC seeks to ensure that all recommendations are made in the best interests of clients regardless of any additional compensation earned.

Item 5. Additional Compensation

SLC is required to disclose information regarding any arrangement under which John D. Bordelon receives an economic benefit from someone other than a client for providing investment advisory services. SLC has no information to disclose in relation to this Item.

Item 6. Supervision

While John D. Bordelon is the Chief Executive Officer of the firm and generally responsible for his own supervision, Peter David Soliman periodically reviews his advisory activities on behalf of SLC. John D. Bordelon seeks to ensure that investments are suitable for his individual clients and consistent with their individual needs, goals, objectives and risk tolerance, as well as any restrictions requested by SLC's clients.
